SPEECH 1 演讲 1

Open ceremony of HNOITEX & HANOIFABRIC 2018

Time: 9:30 AM

Date: 19th September, 2018

Speaker: Mr Cao Quoc Hung

Vice Minister of Industry and Trade

Distinguished Guests,

Ladies & Gentlemen,

On behalf of the Ministry of Industry & Trade, I warmly welcome all distinguished guests, representatives from the business community and mass media agencies to the Opening Ceremony of “Vietnam Hanoi Textile & Garment Industry/ Fabric & Garment Accessories Expo 2018” (HanoiTex 2018) in Hanoi.

Ladies & Gentlemen,

Thanks to its speedy economic reform and int’l economic integration, Vietnam has gained remarkable achievements namely high growth rate of the economy, stable security & politics, sound investment environment, improved living standards, stronger position in the int’l arena. Especially, Vietnam has recently made a great success in hosting the World Economic Forum on ASEAN (WEF ASEAN) 2018, which was highly appreciated by international friends.

However, Vietnam has to face with many challenges such as unstable political situation in the world, production & trade protectionism, changes of policies by the US and other countries’ governments which impose negative impacts on its exports. At the same time, natural disasters also cause serious damages to the country.

With the effective implementation of Government’s policies & decisions along with efforts made by Vietnamese business community, in 2017, Vietnam attained positive results in achieving its economic targets with considerable contribution by the country’s textile & garment sector in terms of total export revenue of 31 bil USD in 2017, an increase of 10% compared with 2016. In the first 8 months of 2018 the sector’s exports was 23bil USD, up 15% compared with the same period of last year.

Ladies & Gentlemen,

The year 2018 continues to see many challenges for Vietnam’s textile & garment sector in making a breakthrough to its higher position, playing a new role in the global supply chain, moving from CMT to FOB, ODM and OBM with the desire of adding more value in supply chain.

In response to the 4th industrial revolution, the textile & garment sector needs to make stronger investment in technology & equipment as well as its personnel. Today the issue for the sector is no longer the number & value of orders or growth rate. The issue is to renew technology and equipment, train a team of qualified managers and marketing personnel.

Ladies & Gentlemen,

With the efforts made by the whole sector, this Exhibition is a practical event which supports the sector's development. HanoiTex 2018 is attended by 120 companies from 12 foreign countries & territories who show their advanced equipment & materials for Vietnam textile & garment industry.

This exhibition will provide local companies with opportunities to view & select technology from advanced countries for their further investment, increasing the localization rate, adding more sources of material, better meeting customer's demand, increasing added value and helping the sector to integrate with the region & the world.

This also provides an opportunity for local & foreign companies in many sectors to meet with each other, promote brand names, establish relationship, expand market as well as build long-term investment strategy.

I am confident that HanoiTex 2018 continues to be a leading textile & garment event in Vietnam & the region.

In closing, on behalf of the Ministry of Industry & Trade, I wish you all good health & success.

I wish all participating companies at HanoiTex 2018 a great success.

Thanks you

SPEECH 2 演讲 2

Open ceremony of HNOITEX & HANOIFABRIC 2017

Time: 9:30 AM

Date: 19th September, 2018

Mr. Vu Duc Giang

Chairman of VITAS

Distinguished Guests,

Ladies & Gentlemen,

On behalf of Vietnam Textile & Apparel Association (VITAS). I wish to extend my warm greetings & sincere thanks to the Leaders of the Ministry of Industry & Trade, Hanoi People's Committee, distinguished guests, participating companies, local & foreign businesses for attending the Opening Ceremony of "Vietnam Hanoi Textile & Garment Industry/ Fabric & Garment Accessories Expo 2018" (HanoiTex 2018) in Hanoi. With the endorsement of the Ministry of Industry & Trade and VITAS, this event is co-organized by VINATEX, VCCI EXPO & CP Exhibition Hong Kong.

HanoiTex 2018 takes place from Sep. 19 – 21, 2018 which displays machinery, equipment, fabric & garment accessories for textile & garment sector brought to Vietnam by companies from 12 foreign countries and territories. It is really a good opportunity for Vietnam Textile & Garment Industry to get access to world's advanced equipment & technology and seize opportunities for expanding its business cooperation.

Ladies & Gentlemen,

As one of the top 5 exporters of textile & garment products in the world, in 2017 Vietnam faced with many challenges especially tougher competition in the market, which could have inhibited the growth of the country's textile & garment sector. However it was surprised that this sector of Vietnam could still achieve the export revenue of more than 31 bil USD, up 10% compared with 2016.

The year 2018 continues to see challenges caused by geopolitical changes, uncertain competition in the world. However, with the CPTPP signed recently, Vietnam textile & garment sector can effectively take advantages of 2 new potential markets of Australia & Canada and, in the meantime, further develop business relations with traditional markets like Japan & Korea. The ultimate goal for 2018 is to achieve the export revenue of 35bil USD and this exhibition will actively support local companies in fulfilling this target.

Ladies & Gentlemen,

In addition to the display of latest equipment & technology for textile & garment sector, a large number of technical and marketing experts in the sector also come to the Exhibition for learning and exchanging each other's experience. Especially, a series of seminars to be organized by VITAS and its partners will provide a forum for sharing new knowledge, expertise on technology, market etc. This is a good source of information you cannot miss.

On this occasion, I wish to sincerely thank Leaders of the Ministry of Industry & Trade, HN City & other province, representatives from Government Agencies, Foreign Embassies, VCCI, local and foreign business community, central & local mass media for coming to this Opening Ceremony.

Our thanks also go to all exhibitors for their support and participation in many exhibitions in the past years. In closing I wish you all good health, happiness & success./.
